

WELCOME TO OUR NEWSLETTER

Volume 1 / Issue 1

Dear Estate Agent,

We are pleased to bring you our long awaited newsletter .We will provide you with the latest relevant information, enabling you to be a step ahead of your competitor. Our aim is to provide you with the latest developments in the property market. Our newsletter will be brief as we are aware how precious your time is.

Some back ground on JA Coetzee Attorneys

At JA Coetzee Attorneys & Conveyancers, our personal approach is unique.

We are a specialist property firm, involved in every aspect of property, from the sale agreement to the transfer of the property. We have an absolute commitment to quality services and continuity.

Our approach ensures customized solutions, because we believe that the diversity and intricacy of legal situations, requires that scrutiny is paid to each situation individually.

We focus on a wide range of property related services which we offer to property owners throughout Gauteng.

The firm was established by Jeannine Alaine Coetzee; previously form Moodie & Coetzee Attorneys.

She obtained the degrees B.Proc. & LLB. at RAU. She was admitted as Attorney in 1997 and as Conveyancer in 2001.

J.A. COETZEE
ATTORNEY
CONVEYANCER

We have included the latest cost schedule, inclusive of the new Deeds Office Fees as well as the new tariff fees, prescribed by the Law Society.

REMINDER

All estate agents must receive certification for the National Qualification Framework (NQF) level 4 or level 5 before October 2013 or they will not be issued with Fidelity Fund Certificates (FFCs) for 2014.

We hope that you enjoyed reading our first newsletter as much as we enjoyed compiling it. Please feel free to contact myself at Jeannine@jaclaw.co.za with any suggestions or comments.
